

(c) Public suggestions and complaints. When citizen suggestions are brought before the council, other than for items already on an agenda, the presiding officer shall first determine whether the issue is legislative or administrative in nature and then:

(1) If legislative, and a complaint about the letter or intent of legislative acts or suggestions for changes to such acts, and if the council finds such complaint suggests a change to an ordinance or resolution of the city, the council shall refer the matter to a standing committee.

(2) If administrative, and a complaint regarding administrative staff performance, administrative execution or interpretation of legislative policy, or administrative policy within the authority of the city administrator, the presiding officer should then refer the complaint directly to the city administrator for his/her review with a written report concerning this issue to the council.

(d) Other restrictions. If the presiding officer, or a majority of the council members, decides that the comments are not relevant or are abusive, the presiding officer may:

(1) Order the citizen to modify his comments.

(2) Order the citizen to refrain from speaking.

(3) Order the citizen to leave the council chambers.

(4) Take such other steps as may be necessary to ensure the efficient conduct of the council's business.

(5) The presiding officer may place a time limit on public comments.

Sec. 2-52. Suspension of rules.

The rules of the council or any part of them may be suspended in connection with any matter under consideration by a recorded vote of five council members voting for suspension.

Sec. 2-53. Amendment of rules.

By a recorded vote of five members of the council, the rules of the council or any part of them may be amended.

Secs. 2-54--2-85. Reserved.

Sec. 2-50. Deliberation.

(a) Manner of. No member shall address the council until recognized by the presiding officer. The member shall then address the presiding officer and keep all remarks to the question under discussion. The member shall also avoid personal confrontations when speaking.

(b) Recognition. When two or more members simultaneously seek recognition, the presiding officer shall name the member who is to speak first.

(c) Motions. No motion shall be discussed or acted upon until it has been seconded unless the rules of the council specifically permit one councilmember to initiate action. No motion shall be withdrawn without the consent of those members making and seconding the motion.

(d) Motions, precedence of. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be entertained except a motion to:

- (1) Adjourn.
- (2) Recess.
- (3) Lay on the table.
- (4) Move the previous question.
- (5) Postpone to a certain day.
- (6) Refer to a committee.
- (7) Amend.
- (8) Postpone indefinitely.

(e) Termination of debate. Any member wishing to terminate the debate may move the previous question. The presiding officer shall then announce the question as, "Shall the question before the council now be put?" If two-thirds of the members present vote in the affirmative, the question before the council shall be taken without further debate. The council then votes, first on any pending amendments and then on the main question.

Sec. 2-51. Citizen's right to address council.

(a) Public comments concerning issues on the council agenda.

(1) Any person desiring to comment on any topic on the agenda shall complete a sign in sheet prior to the meeting being called to order by the chair. The sign in sheet shall list the persons name, address and topic upon which they wish to speak. If a person desires to speak on an issue on the agenda but failed to register on the sign in sheet they may speak if three city council members agree to allow them to speak.

(2) When the item on the agenda is being discussed the chair will recognized the members of the public who have registered on the sign in form requesting to speak on the agenda item. They will then be allowed to address the council. People addressing the city council will approach the podium, state their name, and spell their last name, state their home address before they are allowed to speak. Public comments will occur prior to the discussion of the agenda item by the city council.

(b) Public comments concerning issues not on the council agenda. Members of the public may address the city council on any topic at the conclusion of the city council meeting. After the city council agenda is completed the television cameras will be turned off and the mayor will invite members of the public to address the city council. Any person desiring to comment on a topic not on the agenda shall complete a sign in sheet prior to the meeting being called to order by the chair. The sign in sheet shall list the persons name, address and topic upon which they wish to speak. If a person desires to speak on an issue on the agenda but failed to register on the sign in sheet they may speak if three city council members agree to allow them to speak.

(3) Judiciary. The judiciary committee will advise the common council on those matters relating to the provisions of the Code of Ordinances, legislative (code) initiatives, ordinance reviews, licensing and permits.

(4) Wage, salary and personnel. The wage, salary and personnel committee will advise the common council on those matters relating to personnel policies and practices, compensation administration, labor relations and collective bargaining, and employee relations.

(c) Committee of the whole. The mayor may declare at any meeting the entire council a committee of the whole for informal discussion on any matter unless a member objects. If an objection is made, the entire council may not convene as a committee of the whole unless a motion for that purpose is adopted. This motion shall not be debatable. A majority vote of the members present is required for approval of the motion. Except as provided in section 2-396, the mayor shall ex officio be the chairperson of the committee of the whole.

(d) Special committees. The council may provide for special committees as it may deem necessary. Appointments to special committees shall be made by the mayor. Unless otherwise provided by law, the mayor's appointments shall be subject to confirmation by the council.

(e) Committee reports.

(1) Each committee shall submit a written report to the council on all matters referred to it. Each report shall be submitted at the next regular council meeting after the date of referral unless the council extends the time for submittal. Committee reports shall be adopted by a majority of the committee, filed with the clerk before each meeting and entered in the proceedings. Minority reports may also be submitted to the clerk. Reports may be in the form of part of the minutes of the committee meeting.

(2) For each ordinance or resolution referred to it, the committee shall submit a written report and recommendation to the council. The report may be in the form of part of the minutes of the committee meeting. Immediately following the submission of the report, the proposed ordinance or resolution shall be read in full once unless a motion to suspend the rules and dispense with the reading is adopted. In either case, the council thereafter may at the same meeting consider and vote on the ordinance or resolution. The council, however, may defer action on the measure to its next regular meeting or other specified meeting.

(f) Notice of committee meetings. The committee chairperson shall file notice of each committee meeting with the clerk. The notice shall comply with the notice requirements of Wis. Stats. § 19.84.

(g) Committee referrals. The presiding officer shall make all committee referrals, except as provided under section 2-49.

Sec. 2-49. Financial matters.

All bills and other financial claims against the city shall be itemized and presented to the clerk-coordinator for examination. The clerk-coordinator shall then refer the bills and claims to the committee on finance, which shall report on them at the next council meeting. Payment of regular wages and salaries of officers and employees according to schedules adopted by the council shall be made by the clerk-coordinator without submission to the council after ratification by the department head submitting them and approval by the treasurer.

(d) Abstentions.

(1) A councilmember shall not vote on any proposed ordinance, order, resolution or proposition in which he has a direct pecuniary or personal interest not common to other members of the council.

(2) A councilmember who is required by law to abstain from voting on any particular matter shall not be counted for determining the number of members present if the passage of that measure requires a favorable vote by a majority or other fractional vote (i.e., two-thirds or three-fourths) of the council members present or the presence of a quorum for purposes of that particular vote.

(e) Vote change. A councilmember may change his vote on a matter up to the time the result of the vote is announced.

Sec. 2-45. Reconsideration of question.

Any member who voted in the majority may request and be granted a reconsideration of the vote at the next regular or special meeting of the council.

Sec. 2-46. Ordinances.

(a) Reading ordinances.

(1) All proposed ordinances shall be read a total of two times before the council may vote for final passage. Each ordinance shall be read:

a. At the time the report of the committee to which the ordinance was referred is submitted to the council for its consideration, in full.

b. Immediately prior to the council's actual vote on it, by title only.

(2) By adoption of a motion to suspend the rules, the council may dispense with any or all of the required readings.

Sec. 2-47. Resolutions.

(a) Referral of resolutions. All resolutions shall be referred to an appropriate committee unless the council adopts a motion for immediate consideration of the resolution.

(b) Immediate consideration of the resolutions. Upon a motion for immediate consideration, the presiding officer shall put the question, "Is there any objection to an immediate consideration of the resolution?" If an objection is voiced by a member, a roll call vote on the motion for immediate consideration is required. If no objection is voiced, the clerk shall record a unanimous consent to the motion for immediate consideration. The presiding officer shall then state the principal question.

Sec. 2-48. Committees.

(a) Appointments. The mayor shall appoint a chairperson and two other members to each of the standing committees at the organizational meeting of the newly elected council conducted on the third Tuesday of April. Unless otherwise provided by law, the mayor's appointments shall be subject to confirmation by the council.

(b) Standing committees. The standing committees of the council shall be:

(1) Finance and planning. The finance and planning committee will advise the common council on those matters concerning general financial management practices, debt administration, budget preparation, insurance and risk management issues, and matters of general administrative operation including planning for public buildings and facilities.

(2) Public works. The public works committee will advise the common council on those matters relating to streets and alleys, storm drainage system, wastewater treatment, traffic and parking, public buildings and grounds, parks

Sec. 2-42. Presiding officer.

(a) Designation of. The mayor shall be the presiding officer. In the absence of the mayor, the president of the council shall preside at the meetings of the council and be styled acting mayor. If both the mayor and council president are absent, the clerk shall call the council to order and preside until the council selects a member to preside at that meeting.

(b) Function. The presiding officer shall preserve order, conduct the proceedings of the council and be its parliamentarian. Unless otherwise provided by statute or this chapter, the parliamentary rules in Robert's Rules of Order, Ninth Edition (1990), shall govern. If a member does not follow the council's rules, the presiding officer may on his own motion or shall at any member's request, call the offending member to order. The council, if appealed to, shall decide the matter.

(c) Questions of order. Any councilmember may raise a point or question of order. The question of order shall be raised at the time the alleged breach of order occurs. The presiding officer shall, in turn, immediately rule on the question of order, subject to an appeal by a member to the council. The appeal may be sustained by a majority vote of the members present, exclusive of the presiding officer.

(d) Motion. The mayor may speak on any question or make any motion if he vacates the chair and designates the council president to preside temporarily.

(e) Veto. The mayor may veto all acts of the council as permitted by law. The council may override the mayor's veto by a two-thirds vote of all its members.

Sec. 2-43. President of the council.

(a) Selection. The council president shall be selected by a majority vote of all council members at the annual organizational meeting conducted on the third Tuesday of April.

(b) Absence of mayor. During the mayor's absence or inability to serve, the council president shall be acting mayor and shall be vested with the powers and duties of the mayor; except the council president may not approve a council act that the mayor has vetoed. When presiding, the council president retains his right to vote as a council member.

Sec. 2-44. Voting.

(a) Mode of voting. Any member may demand a roll call vote on any matter.

However, the vote shall be by roll call vote if the council is:

- (1) Confirming appointments.
- (2) Adopting any measure that assesses or levies taxes.
- (3) Appropriating or disbursing money.
- (4) Creating any liability or charge against the city or any fund of the city.
- (5) Adopting an ordinance or resolution.
- (6) The point of beginning on all roll call votes shall be rotated in order on each successive vote. This order shall be maintained for each successive meeting.

(b) Majority vote required. Except as otherwise provided by law, a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary for council action, provided a quorum has voted.

(c) Tie vote. The mayor shall not vote except in the case of a tie. When the mayor does vote in the case of a tie, his vote shall be counted in determining whether a sufficient number of members have voted favorably or unfavorably on any measure.

Sec. 2-37. Quorum required.

A quorum is necessary for transaction of any council business. Two-thirds of all members of the council, excluding the mayor, shall constitute a quorum.

Sec. 2-38. Call to order.

The presiding officer shall at the hour appointed call the members to order. If both the mayor and the council president are absent from the meeting, the clerk shall call the council to order and preside until the council selects a member to preside at that meeting.

Sec. 2-39. Absence of members.

(a) If a councilmember for any reason cannot attend a regularly scheduled meeting, he shall inform the clerk in writing at least one day before the meeting in question. The councilmember's excused absence shall be entered in the record of the council.

(b) A call of the council may be requested at any time by two or more members, and absent members shall be sent for; but a call shall not be made after voting has commenced. When a call of the council has been requested and ordered, the door shall be closed until the report of the police officer has been received and acted upon, or until further proceedings under the call are dispensed with by a majority of the entire council.

Sec. 2-40. Order of business.

The business of the council shall be conducted in the following order:

- (1) Roll Call;
- (2) Notice of open meeting;
- (3) Approval of agenda;
- (4) Approval of minutes;
- (5) Correspondence and communications;
- (6) Committee reports;
- (7) Old business;
- (8) New business;
- (9) Reports of city officers;
- (10) Comments of citizens present;
- (11) Adjournment.

Sec. 2-41. Introduction of business.

(a) Introduction requirements. Before introduction, all ordinances, resolutions or motions must be referred to one of the common council standing committees. All ordinances, resolutions or motions shall be approved by a majority vote of one of standing committees before the ordinance, resolution or motion is placed on the common council agenda. An ordinance, resolution or motion may be voted upon at a common council meeting without review and recommendation from a standing committee if the common council adopts a motion to suspend the rules. Ordinances and resolutions pertaining to zoning and subdivisions issues referred to the common council by the plan commission may be placed on the common council meeting agenda without referral from a standing committee.

(b) Filing. Each proposed ordinance or resolution shall be filed in the office of the clerk at least four days prior to that scheduled council meeting at which the measure is to be introduced. If for good cause this pre-filing is impossible or impracticable, the council may waive this requirement.

(c) Reintroduction restricted. Unless otherwise provided by city ordinance, no proposed ordinance or resolution having once been defeated may again be introduced in the same or in the substantially same form until 30 days after the date when that ordinance or resolution was defeated.

ARTICLE II. CITY COUNCIL

Sec. 2-31. Composition.

The city council shall consist of the mayor and two council members from each district who shall be elected for two-year terms.

Sec. 2-32. Duties and powers.

The council members shall constitute the city council and shall have such duties and powers as are enumerated in Wis. Stats. § 62.01 et seq. and elsewhere in the statutes.

Sec. 2-33. Authority.

The city council shall have all powers of the city not specifically given to some other body or officer. Except as otherwise provided by law, the city council shall have the management and control of the city property, finances, highways, streets, utilities and the public service and may act for the government and good order of the city for its commercial benefit and for the health, safety, welfare and convenience of the public and may carry its powers into effect by license, regulation, suppression, borrowing, taxation, special assessment, appropriation, imposition of forfeiture and other necessary or convenient means. The city council may appoint such officers from time to time as may be deemed necessary for the benefit of the city. The powers conferred by this section shall be in addition to all other grants and shall be limited only by express language.

Sec. 2-34. Regular meetings.

(a) Following the spring election of each year, the city council shall meet on the third Tuesday of April for the purpose of organization. Regular meetings of the council shall be held on the first and third Tuesday of every month at 7:00 p.m. in the council chamber.

(b) If any meeting date, as fixed by subsection (a), falls on a legal holiday, the meeting shall instead be held on the first business day succeeding that holiday at the same hour and place.

Sec. 2-35. Special meetings.

(a) The mayor may call special meetings of the city council by written notice to each member. The notice shall be delivered to the members personally or left at their usual abode at least 24 hours before the meeting, unless for good cause a 24-hour notice is impossible or impractical. In such case, a shorter notice may be given; but the notice may not at any time be provided less than six hours in advance of the meeting. The notice shall specify the time, place and purpose of the meeting. Attendance by any council member is a waiver of any defect of notice.

(b) The mayor may call a special meeting without notice at a regularly convened council meeting if all members are present.

(c) A special meeting may be called if four members consent in writing to the holding of such a meeting. If written consent is obtained, it shall be filed with the clerk 36 hours before the commencement of the meeting.

(d) Special meetings shall be deemed regular meetings for the purpose of transacting any business permitted by law.

Sec. 2-36. Adjournment.

Any councilmember may move to adjourn a meeting. If any agenda item is not considered before a motion to adjourn is adopted, it shall automatically be referred to the council's next regular meeting unless the motion provides for a specific date and hour.

Columbus Area Aquatic Center Board (CAAC): The CAAC Board was formed by members of the general public, financial supporters of the Columbus Area Aquatic Center and the city government to undertake the construction and operation of the aquatic center facility. The city dedicated the park site for the facility, managed the construction and contributed $1,700,00. The CAAC board raised over $1,100,000 in donations and undertook the operation and management of the facility after construction. The board consists of 9 members, whose appointment is confirmed by the City Council: 6 members are appointed by the board and serve 3 year terms, 2 appointed each year at the annual meeting in October. The remaining 3 members are appointed to the board, 1 each from the City Council, the Columbus School Board and the Columbus Community Hospital Board.

Community Activities Commission: This commission consists of an Executive Committee which oversees all community recreation, leisure and community wide events within the city; a Recreation Committee which oversees all community recreation activities and events; and a Community Activities Committee which oversees all community wide events and activities. The recreation and community committees each consist of 5 citizens members; the executive committee consists of 2 members from the recreation and community committees and one alderman. All appointments are made by the mayor and confirmed by the council. Terms are staggered.

Library Board: The library board consist of 7 members. Six members are appointed by the mayor, confirmed by the council. 5 of the 6 members of the board must be residents of the city, while the 6th member may be from a town adjacent the city. The 7th member will be a public school district administrator or representative. The library board has exclusive control of the expenditures of all moneys collected, donated or appropriated for the library fund. The board also controls all lands, buildings or other property given or acquired for library purposes. The board supervises the administration of the library including hiring the librarian and any other staff. Board members are appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council, for 3 year terms, 3 members to be appointed in consecutive years and 1 member to be appointed in the following year. Terms begin on May 10th the year of appointment.

Plan Commission: The Plan Commission is responsible for adopting a master plan for the physical development of the city and for reviewing proposed conditional uses, subdivisions and zoning district amendments. The commission consists of the mayor, who serves as chair, the superintendent of public works, an alderperson, and 4 residents of the city. The alderperson is appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council. The residents are appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council, for 3 year terms, one each April.

Board of Review: The Board of Review is the first formal step in the appeal process for Wisconsin property owners who want to appeal their property assessments. The board's duty is to hear sworn, oral testimony about assessed values and based solely on that testimony decide whether an individual has proven the assessment to be incorrect. The Board of Review meets once a year, usually the 2nd Monday in May. The board consists of 5 residents of the city, appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council, for 5 year terms, one each year. Appointments are made by the 10th of May each year.

Water & Light Commission: The Water & Light Commission consists of 5 members, each serving a 5-year term, and 2 alderpersons who serve a 2-year term each. The management, control and supervision of any and all of the property pertaining to the water & the electric systems is invested in this commission along with employing all labor necessary in the operation, management and extension of the systems. Appointments are made by the council for terms that begin on October 1st of the year of appointment.

Zoning Board of Appeals: The Zoning Board of Appeals role is to determine whether, as applied to a particular set of facts and circumstances presented, the zoning administrator's interpretation and application of the local ordinance is in accord with the terms of that ordinance and State law. The board may grant variances in specific cases from the terms of the zoning code based on review of circumstances for practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship. The board consists of 5 residents of the city, appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council, for 3 year terms, one each year. Appointments are made by the 10th of May each year.

Historic Landmarks & Preservation Commission: This commission consists of 7 members serving staggered terms of 3 years each. The commission has the power to designate historic structures, sites and districts within the city limits. These designations are made subject to criteria found in local ordinances. The members are appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council. Terms begin on May 10th of the year of appointment.

Citizen Advisory Boards

Police and Fire Commission: The Police & Fire Commission appoints the fire chief and the police chief and hears disciplinary matters of the departments. This commission has not taken the optional powers allowed by the Wisconsin statutes. The commission has 5 members appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council. Each member serves a 5-year term with one term commencing May 10th each year.

Community Development Authority: The Community Development Authority consists of 7 resident members with abilities and experience in the fields of urban renewal, community development and housing. 5 members serve 4 year terms each and 2 council members serve for their term of office. The authority has all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate all aspects of urban renewal, development and redevelopment programs and governmental housing projects. The appointments are made by the mayor and confirmed by the council, effective May 10th of the year of appointment.

Municipal Court Committee: Columbus is a member of the Eastern Columbia County Joint Municipal Court. The purpose of the committee is to facilitate the orderly administration and communication between the municipal judge and the participating municipalities. Columbus appoints 1 member and 1 alternate member. The member is appointed by the mayor and approved by the council.

Board of Electrical Examiners: This board has authority over the issuance, suspension or revocation of electrical licenses and oversees the city's electrical inspector. The Board of Electrical Examiners consists of 3 members - the mayor or a citizen appointed by the mayor, one electrical contractor and one journeyman electrician. The appointments are made by the mayor, confirmed by the council for 2 year terms.

Cable Commission: The Cable Commission is comprised of a member of the Judiciary Committee, a member of the Water & Light Commission and 3 citizen members appointed for 2 year terms. The commission acts for the city in all matters relating to the cable telecommunications network, including preparing a budget and allocating funds for public access programming and production. Commission members are appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council by May 10th of each year.

Hillside Cemetery Association: The Hillside Cemetery Association consists of 9 members who each serve a 3-year term and 3 advisory members who each serve a 1 year term. Terms are staggered with 3 regular and 1 advisory member appointed each year. The association establishes rules and regulations for the operation of the cemetery and maintains all necessary records relating to the cemetery. All monies collected are receipted to the city. Members are elected by the association at the annual meeting in June of each year.

Election Board: The Election Board consists of 7 inspectors for each voting district. Each inspector must be a resident of the voting district he or she represents. There are currently 3 voting districts in Columbus. Inspectors are appointed by the mayor, confirmed by the council. The appointments are for 2 years and are made in December of every even numbered year.
